Part I, Line 2 - Procedures for Monitoring the Use of Grant Funds

The United Way makes an annual site visit to the recipient agencies and The United Way makes an annual site visit to the recipient agencies and reviews the annual financial performance and use of funds of the recipient agencies. At the beginning of the allocations process, the grant applicants submit a packet to the United Way of Johnson County which includes a description of their projects and services an audit or review of the previous year's funds, a projected budget for the coming year, the number of clients served, and the impact that the service had on their clients or the community. They also submit reports showing the demographic served during the year with United Way funds, payroll information, special events, and fundraisers perfomed, membership statistics, board information, information about the agency's mission, executive director, and operating procedures, and funding priorities. If an allocation is granted with a stipulation attached, the United Way monitors compliance throughout the year to determine if the grant will continue.
